To Whom It May Concern:

I have used Chad during my entire nine years in Big Sky to repair construction errors made by my original contractor. Having been a carpenter for many years I can assure you that Chad and his employees not only do quality and thorough work, but they also come back to warranty any problems that may arise. I can also tell you from many experiences that contractors in the Big Sky area that warranty their work, do quality work, or have integrity are few and far between. I have also toured many homes that he has built and the quality speaks for itself.

I would recommend Chad for new construction or any type of repair or replacement job.

Sincerely,
